Note: Volunteers are needed to be Interest Group Leaders for some previous Interest Groups (such as the Out & About Club) or to organize new groups. The duties are simple. At the beginning of the year, submit a list of meeting dates for the newsletter. Then each month email meeting details to the group members.

Announcing New Interest Groups

Recently some members have expressed an interest in leading some new interest groups. If you think you would like to join them, contact them at the information provided.

More importantly, If you have an idea for a group, consider becoming the leader to organize it. Typically leadership rotates over time among the group members. The leader's responsibilities are simple; facilitate identifying dates, times and locations of the meetings and send the info to the Coordinator for the Interest Groups for submission in the newsletter. Then send a meeting reminder (typically through email) to the group members. Most groups rotate meeting locations so that no one person is burdened with meeting preparations. Other groups identify a standing meeting location such as a community meeting room, clubhouse or restaurant.

LEADERS SEEKING GROUP MEMBERS

NEW WINE TASTING GROUP: One Wine Tasting Group is already filled. However, Monica Dignam has indicated she would like to start a second group. The first group typically operates such that the host provides 4 wines for tasting. Attendees share the cost. A group will identify their own guidelines and practice. Monica can be contacted at: Monica Dignam, (812) 345-8770 mondig90@gmail.com

NEW EUCHRE GROUP: If you would like to learn or join a group for euchre, contact Cindy York 812-333-4729 or cookie2852@aol.com. She is looking for a group and suggestions as to where the group could meet.

NEW CRIBBAGE GROUP: Want to learn or join a cribbage group? Contact Susan Koutiel, greenviewsusan@gmail.com or Jerry Gonyo (see below) to be placed on contact list for a possible new group.

CANASTA: Jerry Gonyo, jerrygonyo@comcast, (812) 287-8879

SEPT 9 SEASON KICKOFF Host: Jerry Gonyo, 139 S. High St. New Members are welcome as well as more experienced players.

GROUPS SEEKING LEADER

THE OUT AND ABOUT GROUP: Recently this group lost its leaders, but interested members remain. This group was known for its day trips to interesting locations, often venturing beyond the Bloomington area borders.
