

WHAT'S ON YOUR B-TOWN BUCKET LIST?

Here are fifty things to add to your B-town Bucket List:

1. See a local play by Cardinal Stage Co. or the BBP
2. Enjoy some live music at The Bluebird
3. Eat a steak at Janko's Little Zagreb
4. Spend an afternoon looking for eagles at Lake Monroe
5. Climb the Hickory Ridge Fire Tower (bring a camera)
6. Visit the Butler Winery Vineyard location
7. Walk the entire B-Line Trail
8. Watch the sunset with friends from the Upland Patio
9. Visit WonderLab
10. Hike back to the waterfall at Cascades Park
11. Go rock climbing at Hoosier Heights
12. Enjoy a summer music performance and picnic in a local park
13. Ice cream at the Chocolate Moose
14. Take in a show at the Comedy Attic
15. Participate in Downtown Gallery Walk at least once
16. Eat at Hinkle's Hamburgers
17. Take a selfie with Herman (and one with Hoagy, too)
18. Walk the trail at Leonard Springs Nature Park
19. Go to a drive-in movie
20. Go to at least one restaurant on 4th Street
21. Play pool or darts at the Vid
22. Hike out to Steppe Cemetery in Morgan-Monroe State Forest
23. Spin the prayer wheels at the Tibetan Mongolian Buddhist Cultural Center
24. Dessert with drinks at Oliver Winery Downtown
25. Actually go inside the Monroe County Courthouse - look up
26. Attend Farmers' Market at least once
27. Visit the Monroe County History Center
28. Go hiking or canoeing at Lake Griffy
29. Discover the Little Africa Wildlife Area a Lake Lemon...
30. Have lunch at the Porthole Inn
31. Spend the afternoon on/at Lake Monroe
32. Learn from one of the IU archives' exhibits
33. Stroll through at least one IU art or cultural museum

For extra credit, venture beyond Bloomington proper to explore a few of our neighboring communities. Here are day trips we highly recommend:

34. Visit the Sculpture Trails Outdoor Museum in nearby Solsberry
35. Explore Bluespring Caverns or other caves in southern Indiana
36. Enjoy Spring Mill's Pioneer Village and learn about Gus Grissom in Lawrence County
37. Drive over to Nashville and visit Brown County State Park (and do some shopping!)
38. Go to the Art Sanctuary (and Candy Kitchen) in nearby Martinsville
39. Venture as far as Columbus to visit Zaharako's and relax in Mill Race Park
40. Check out the historic sites of Vincennes
41. Visit Terre Haute for the holocaust and Clabber Girl museums
42. Spend some time in French Lick/West Baden
43. Do a Night Roar at the Feline Sanctuary in Centerpoint, just West of Bowling Green, IN
44. Give a spa treatment to an elephant at Wilstem Ranch outside of Paoli. (also giraffes & roos)
45. Check out the site of the first state capitol at Corydon, the caves and festivals on the Ohio
46. Catch a ride on the jet boat from Madison to Louisville
47. Meander the main street and river front of Madison and take in one of the many music events
48. Grab some food from a food truck
49. Go to at least one museum/attraction in Indianapolis
50. Share your adventures with others

Are there things you'd add to our B-town Bucket List?

Adapted from visitbloomington.com